And Justice is his name
